

Car License Renewals Get Off To Brisk Start

Motorists seeking to get their 1959 license plate renewal stickers in place early in the year brought brisk business to Department of Motor Vehicles field offices, auto clubs, and temporary bank renewal stations Friday and at the start of this week.

Department officials again urged prompt application for 1959 car registration, pointing out that the service is faster and more convenient for all concerned if delay to near the Feb. 4 penalty deadline is avoided.

E. K. Ball, DMV Field Chief, reminded nonresident motorists whose former home-state plates expired on Dec. 31, 1958, that they must meet a registration deadline on Jan. 30, to keep free of California's late registration penalties. Resident motorists may renew

"THIS SPECIAL deadline for nonresidents is required by law," Ball explained. "California's Vehicle Code states that a nonresident motorist becomes subject to penalty if he does not register within 30 days after the statutory expiration of his out-of-state plates."

"We have taken special pains to alert military personnel to this requirement, as a considerable portion of the nonresident applications are expected to come from persons stationed in California on military duty."

Ball also pointed out that nonresident applications are more complex than renewals of

BUILDER FINED

Failure to file tax reports and remit employee deductions to the State of California Department of Employment resulted this week in a $250 fine for a local building contractor.

Found guilty by state auditor T. D. Weld of the Long Beach district office was Jose D. Hernandez of 1463 W. 187th St.

previous California registrations, and should be brought into regular DMV offices as early as possible in January. The bank stations are not equipped to process nonresident registrations.

School Rolls Drop Slightly

Enrollment in the elementary and high schools of Torrance Unified School District last month dropped by 54 students, while average daily attendance during the same period fell 76 short of classroom attendance in the month of November, bringing the total enrolled figure at the close of the year to 22,895. Average daily attendance for December, 1958 totaled 22,636. An increase of 1797 students over enrollment during the same month of the previous

New Steak Bar Makes Debut

Torrance newest eating place made its debut Friday when the Sizzling Steak Bar, located at 2700 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., between Crenshaw and Western, officially opened.

Operated by Steak Bars, Inc., the firm is well-known from the reputation of its Long Beach "Steak House" at 2500 American Avenue.

In addition to the steak bar, which features charbroiled steaks served on sizzling platters, a pancake bar is featured. No liquor is served at the establishment which opens at 8 a.m. The firm is a new member of the Torrance Chamber

Auto Club To Renew Lomita Car Licenses

To facilitate auto license renewals for residents of Lomita, a representative of the Southern California Auto Club will be at the office of the Lomita Chamber of Commerce, 24814 Narbonne Ave., from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the next two weeks.

Persons desiring to register their cars in Lomita are asked to report to the chamber office on Jan. 13, 15, or 22.
